Whitman ought to abide by his promise that it his budget programme was interfered with he would call a special session of the Legislature to carry out the pledges of the Republican Party to the people. Here is the promise, mado last January in a newspaper interview, at a time when members of the Legislature began to boast that they would shoot the Governor's budget, prepared by his budget conference, all to pleces.

WHITMAN WON'T LISTEN TO instead of calling a special session of the Legislature as he promised to do in case the Legislature should continue its policy of extravagance and profigacy, the Governor has reverged himself. When the Tax Reduction Committee visited him the arguments in favor of vetoes which would reduce the appropriations for State expenditures if it is the last thing I ever do as Governor . . . When I took office as Governor last January I knew absolutely nothing about State finances. I had to take the estimates prepared for me and work out the best solution I could. I discovered State finances were in a lamentable condition * * It was made apparent to me throughout the legislative session and afterward when I went over the bills that there were many useless and extravagant appropriations. Salaries were padded. Department heads stood before me and pointed to items in the bills which they declared they never had seen or heard of before.

Another statement which was published, in more or less complete form, in practically all the daily newspapers of .ne State, Gov. Whitman

Evenus have shown that the Governor does not purpose to stand on the adoption of his budget programme, which, he stated, on Feb. 1. 1915, "can be reduced by the Legislature from $1.000.000 to $2.000.000." If he isn't going to stand he must be preparing for a fail, for the Legisla-ture, instead of paring his budget from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000 in-creased it $2,500,000, and therefore, on his own figures, padded the appro-priations by from $3.509,000 to $4,-

Greenhut's OPEN ALL DAY Tomorrow (Saturday) Greenhut's Great Preparedness Sales

When Grover Cleveland said "It is a condition, not a theory, that confronts us," he spoke of political conditions; but his remark is equally true today with respect to conditions which face every thrifty person in Last Monday we inaugurated our first great "Preparedness Sale." We had foreseen what was inevitable. We literally combed the markets of the world, with a view to protecting our customers. We realized that a world war would result in hardships, EVEN ON THIS SIDE OF THE ATLANTIC.

Free rein was given to our buyers to do their best in our customers' interests. We bought heavily in all directions. We secured the best moderate priced merchandise to be had, and, in consequence, GREENHUT'S CUSTOMERS TODAY ARE IN THE HAPPY POSITION OF BEING ABLE TO BUY THE VERY THINGS THEY WANT RIGHT NOW, OR WILL BE LIKELY TO WANT IN THE COMING MONTHS, FOR LESS THAN SUCH GOODS WILL BE PROCURABLE AT WHOLESALE PRICES LATER.
